Schotten & Hansen x Pluck kitchen collaboration

British kitchen maker Pluck has recently unveiled a new collaboration with the German wood surface specialist Schotten & Hansen, using the latter's labs to create four new colours just for Pluck. What these pigments do is enhance the natural grain of the wood, washing it in colour in a way that makes the whorls stand out, enhancing their inherent beauty. 'And they're so tactile to the touch, too - the texture is just remarkable. I'm ultra-impressed,' says Pip. ➤
